Frosh Learn Of College Life

Student body president, Ivan Lyddon, moderated a panel of campus leaders during the first week of freshman orientation. The purpose of this discussion was to introduce the new students to the various social organizations of the college.

Groups represented at the meeting were Blue Key, The Independent Student Organization, and the various Greek organizations.

Earlier in the week, college freshmen were informed of rules, regulations and accepted activities by a panel consisting of Mr. Luther Belcher, business manager; Mrs. V. T. Smith, College nurse, and Dr. R. P. Foster.

Following this session, Mrs. L. G. Bladt, Dean of Women and Mr. Jack Lasley, Dean of Men, addressed the students concerning the rules connected with their housing.

Total Rush Runs 24-28

Rush week begins Sunday and continues through the week. Formal sorority rush opens with the annual Panhellenic Tea Sunday, September 23, in the Student Union Lounge from 3-5 p. m. All women students interested in joining a sorority are invited to attend.

Fraternity rushing will start the following day. However, the schedule was not available in time for print. Freshmen boys are not allowed to pledge until second semester.

The only people eligible to win these prizes were faculty, students and employees of NWMSC who registered during the three day period.

College to Offer M.U. Grad Courses

Dr. Leon F. Miller, dean of instruction, reports that 40 graduate students have enrolled in the University of Missouri graduate courses being offered on campus this fall.

Twenty-eight enrolled in the group Intelligence Testing course to be taught Wednesdays, and 16 enrolled in the elementary school administration course Saturdays.

Dr. Miller also stated that six or eight more graduate students are expected to join the classes by the time they start. Both courses are good for three semester hours.

Six to Cheer Team

NWMSC 1962-'63 cheering squad was chosen from the 22 try-outs September 13, at 4:00 p.m. Those selected were: (Upper Classman) Kay Bowen, Jane Porter, Margie MacDonald; (Freshmen) Linda Chastain, Kathy Johnson, Virginia Peters.

The judges represented the eight Greek social organizations, the two service organizations, and ISO.

Homecoming Plans Reach Completion

Plans for Homecoming are again underway. The committees drawn up, the members attend to their duties. The skit scripts must be submitted by September 21.

The next meeting will be September 24, Monday, at 4:00 p. m., in room 315. If you are on the committee, you are expected to attend.

Watch the Misourian for further news on Homecoming.

Bearcat QB Fund at $1,635 at End of Week

At the end of the first week of the Quarterback Club athletic scholarship fund drive, a total of $1,635 has been collected.

Paul Fields, drive chairman, announced today 32 more individuals or businesses had made donations to the drive.

The Quarterback Club drive to raise money for Northwest State College athletic scholarships is being conducted entirely through the mail this year. Fields has said he hopes to have the drive completed the week before the first MSC home game, Sept. 29.

Student Senate Holds First Meeting

BULLETIN

Candidates for Student Body Vice-President must file in the Registrar's Office by tomorrow, Thursday noon.

Student Senate met Thursday evening, Sept. 13, in preparation for the election of class officers.

Wednesday of the third week of classes, Sept. 26, has been set aside for the nominating conventions for officers of all four classes. In addition, nominations will be made to fill two existing vacancies; namely, Junior class student senator and student body vice-president.

Elections will be held the following Wednesday, Oct. 3. Details as to location of polls will be in the next issue of the Misourian.

1,000 Compete For Fellowships

Competition for the 1,000 first-year graduate study awards offered by the Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation for 1963-'64 is under way now.

Faculty members have until October 31 to nominate candidates for the awards. All nominees will be notified by the Foundation's regional chairman to return an information form immediately after receipt and to file other credentials no later than November 20, 1962.

Dr. Charles Koerble and Mr. D. F. Peel are in charge of nominations.

Awards are for $1,500 plus an allowance for dependents as well as tuition and fees. Students in the fields of the humanities and social sciences are eligible.

90 Attend Workshop

Last Tuesday, Northwest Missouri State played host to some 90 representatives from 21 High Schools in the Northwest Missouri area. These students and instructors were attending the 1962 Yearbook Work Shop sponsored by the Inter-Collegiate Press of Kansas City.

The Work Shop is designed to aid high schools in developing better yearbooks year after year. New and improved techniques were explained and discussed, and many samples and examples were readily available to those attending.

In the picture, Mr. Robert Chown points out some of the high-points to his staff members, who were representing North Harrison High, Eagleville, Missouri.

NWMSC Enrolls 2,455 Students

According to Dr. Robert P. Foster, dean of administration, 2,455 students have thus far enrolled in Northwest Missouri State College. In addition to this figure there are 47 graduate students.

Karen Mast Heads Roberta Hall

The first meeting of the Roberta-Perrin Halls Dormitory Council was held Thursday, Sept. 13. The main topic of business was election and installation of officers for the coming year. Those installed were: Karen Mast, president; Sue McNeill, vice-president; Barb Combs, secretary; and Jane Schultz, treasurer.

Other members of the council are: Sandy Herzog, Jean Spiller, Sharon Bolon, Janice Hansen, Sherry Speers.

Debbie Price, Donna Thiese, Marlys Updegraff, Linda K. Jones, Judy Dewey.

Marcie Latham Wins $100 Scholarship

Marceline Latham has been awarded a $100 scholarship by the National Phi Mu Foundation. The scholarship is based on social achievements and scholastic ability and is awarded to only five students in the United States.

Miss Latham, a senior from Savannah, Missouri, is majoring in English with a minor in Library Science.

Draft Regulations Announced

All Selective Service registrants over 21 years of age who have a deferred classification such as a 2S classification should contact their own local draft board and verify their attendance in college. This should be done at once!

Concerning registration Dean Foster made the following statement, "Considering that this is the first fall registration using the IBM system I feel that registration procedures were very satisfactory. The errors which occurred we are finding are due to human errors, which we feel we can improve as the students and the faculty become more acquainted with procedures that are being followed."

"The enrollment forms have been redesigned as well as simplifying the procedures followed during registration. It is hoped that registration for the second semester of the current year will be much easier."

Lots Of Lots

Another of the many recognizable improvements seen on campus is the parking facilities. Two new lots were constructed during the summer along with the refinishing of the eight other lots.

All campus roads were resurfaced with state appropriation. The cost of both roads and lots was $202,000. Parking lot number one was renovated with student funds. Having a 7 inch cement base, the lots will be permanent.

Parking regulations will be strictly enforced. It will be necessary to park within the right lot and between the white lines or tickets will be administered.

ATTENTION

All students who expect to graduate at the end of the fall semester or the spring semester should sign an application for graduation in the Registrar's Office.

Working plans at yearbook Workshop.

THE COLLEGE OATH

"We will never bring disgrace to this, our College, by any act of cowardice or dishonesty. We will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the College. We will revere and obey the College laws and do our best to incite a like respect and reverence in others. We will transmit this College to those who come after us, greater, better, and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

From The Editor's Desk

By now, that Freshmen Orientation and classes are certainly well underway, the proverbial welcome is worn a bit and frayed around the edges. But there is no other word better suited for the times, especially here on campus. And so, I dare to use it once again in this initial issues of the 1962-63 school year.

Some time ago when the intricacies of the typewriter were being explained to me, the warming-up sentence "Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their party" was dictated. I think this sentence with a few changes here and there is very apropos. "Now is the time for all good Bearcats to come to the aid of Maryville." How, you say; and why.

This is a personal little pet subject of mine. So, step by step, I'll try to explain:

College life is more than merely going to and from class and whiling away a few minutes in the Den. It is belonging, it is being a member of the college community. A fairly simple means for accomplishing this end is by joining some organization on campus, be it social, departmental, service, occupational or religious. But joining something; anything. In other words, become a Bearcat and participate. Decide for yourself whether the organization be Independent or Greek.

After suffering through the agonizing Fall of the Roman Empire for some 50 minutes, the Stroller staggered to a dark corner of the Den and collapsed in a heap of rubble a la Rome. Inhaling the wavering fumes of the burning weed and gulping coffee with the spirit of a drowning man gasping for breath, she attempted to restore her shattered nerves. Tragedy! Here came the final blow, a freshman.

Despite the absence of the identifying beanie or even the oft-promised identity button, the greenness and youthful exuberance that so mark a junior member of Jones, Koerble, & Sheldon, Msc., Inc., came through loud and clear. In her brightest DAR Tea manner she plunked herself down in the opposite chair and brashly announced, "I'm Susie Ann Tarshis."

"I'm not," retorted the knowledgeable one between tubercular coughs and returned to satisfying his inner needs.

Unable or unwilling to take the hint, this lowly vessel of unholiness remained. After the short awkward silence which followed, the Stroller's latent hostility toward freshmen plus his annoyance of people who invade his privacy began to assert themselves and he gathered enough energy to inform this child that he was bugging him.

HE: Go.

SHE: What's the matter with you? Have you sublimated your need for interpersonal relationships. Do you have a pain-avoidance syndrome with regard to members of the opposite sex as far as college students are concerned?

HE: What have I done to deserve this?

SHE: Do I give you feelings of inferiority? Did your last social involvement result in a traumatic experience?

HE: No. (All I ask is to be let alone. That's not much.)

SHE: I suspect from your actions that your early emotional development was greatly influenced by an over Oedipus complex complicated by repressions which found their outlet only in an anti-social expression...

Precisely at the time she paused for breath the Stroller uttered an exhausted groan as his remaining nerve cells collapsed. Making a mental note to run at the sight of any girl displaying the slightest desire to perform a psychoanalysis at the drop of a latent hostility, he rose unsteadily and made for the door, breaking three coke glasses on the way and leaving his uneven foot prints across the floor.

Is Missourian Old Fashioned

Often times the question is posed "Why does it take so long between issues of the paper?" "By the time we get the Northwest Missourian most of the news is 'old hat,'" say some students.

Little does the average student realize the tedious and time consuming work involved in putting out the paper. Between gathering the necessary information, rechecking the facts, writing the story, having the type set and then reading proofs, many man-hours are used.

Let us suppose for use of illustration that a dance is held Saturday night. By the time the story is written and sent to the printer, it's the middle of the week. When the paper is planned as to where each particular story is going to be placed, it's Thursday and deadline.

In the meantime, the editor has had to read every story for possible mistakes. The copy of each story has been sent to the printer and set in metal type, a checking copy of the story in type is returned to the paper office for re-reading and re-checking for errors.

As is the usual case, necessary corrections are marked and the printer has to make new type for those lines in which errors occur. Then a dummy model layout is made and sent to the printer so that type may be arranged for the actual page. The next step is the printing, and this semester it is necessary to print 3,000 copies. That takes time even on a modern printing press.

Of course, if pictures are to accompany a story additional

So, when you pick up your Northwest Missourian you can figure approximately fifty man hours have gone into putting out the paper.

Are You Legal

All student and faculty members must register their motored vehicle if members expect to use vehicles on campus during the year. This includes vehicles acquired during the year. Those present only on the week-ends are not required to be registered.

Vehicles must be parked only in the assigned lots from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m. Monday thru Friday. Those lots marked "R" are reserved for officials.

People who register or fail to register their vehicles are responsible for violations against the vehicle.

Traffic court for those who appeal the tickets is held Monday's at 4 p. m. in Dean Koerble's office.

Will The Bell Toll?

After being in retirement for several years, the TKE Bell is again being readied for the coming sports season. The bell, shown here being polished by Al Meyer and Dick Devers, is a long tradition with the Maryville TKE's.

Taken from an old steam locomotive in 1956, it was decided that it should be rung each time the Bearcats scored. This practice was partially lost through the years due to other pressing activities, but is to be renewed this year with all of the enthusiasm that was present when the bell was first acquired. The Bell will ring at the first home game, Sept. 29.

Bearcats Stop In Opener

As Tarkio College discovered a week ago, Peru, Neb., State has a knack for coming from behind late in the game and winning.

The Bobcats did it again Saturday night at Peru, dropping visiting Northwest State College 7-6.

The Bearcats dominated the first half, shoving Peru back and forth almost at will. At the half, MSC led 6-0.

Bernie Ricono, diminutive 'Cat back, put the Green and White in the lead in the first quarter when he skirted right end and dashed six yards for paydirt, climaxing a 54-yard drive. The extra point attempt failed.

The statistics proved the 'Cats effectiveness in the first half. They chalked up 131 yards rushing to Peru's 21; they made seven first downs to Peru's none.

But after intermission, a rash of penalties and a hopped up Peru defense stopped the 'Cats cold.

A pass interference call gave the Bobcats the ball deep in MSC territory, but the Bearcat defense tightened. On a fourth and four situation, Bill Tynon pitched a 13-yard pass to Roger Noell to tie the game. Leonard Kinser kicked the important extra point at 10:36 of the final period.

In the second half, MSC was held to 25 yards rushing. Peru gained 60.

On the defensive side, tackles Roger Voss and Glenn Acksel and end Ed Whitaker led the way in stopping the Bobcat attack.

It was the second win of the season for Peru; the Bobcats rallied for 14 points in the last half to drop Tarkio College at Tarkio a week ago.

The Bearcats were playing their season's opener. MSC is

Intramurals Aim: Sports For All

"Sports for all" is the slogan adopted by the NWMSC Intramurals program, according to Dr. H. D. Peterson, Chairman of the Division of Physical Education.

Dr. Peterson urged NWMSC students to "watch no more" and to participate in intramurals. With the increased MSC enrollment, the intramural set-up has grown, too.

In order to accommodate more and to increase participation, the Men's quadrangles have been divided into teams according to their respective floor and quad. Assistant Dean Ralph Messerli is in charge of this phase of operation.

This year's student intramural supervisor is Larry Hagan, a senior PE major from St. Joseph.

Calendar

Hagan reported that intramural tennis is first on the agenda. The tennis event began September 12 with 56 netsters and continued into this week.

Touch football comes next on the slate. Touch football teams will consist of eight players instead of the traditional six-man squads.

The grid contests will be played under the lights on the Bearcat practice field.

A touchfootball captain's meeting will be held today in the Lamkin Gym.

Chalk Talk . . . Bob Cobb

With King Football bearing down upon us, we look for a tight MIAA race, with our Bearcats right in the middle of the scrap.

Without making any wild assumptions, we look for a much improved bunch of 'Cat gridsters to erase the memory of a dismal 2-7 1961 season.

Earl Baker's '62 Model Bearcats have three things this year which were noticeably missing last season -- great team spirit, tried and tested ability, and a burning desire to win -- what else is needed?

Here and There

The initial two home games will be staged at Beal Park. MSC's Rickenbode stadium which has recently undergone an elaborate face-lifting will be ready for competition at Homecoming, October 20.

Gerald Landwer has just joined the MSC athletic department, according to chairman, Dr. H. D. Peterson. Landwer will serve as head wrestling coach and PE instructor.

Be sure and sign up for intramurals. They are certainly a very enjoyable part of our athletic program and deserve a great deal of acclaim.

Right now, it seems that there will be a Yankee-Dodger World Series much to the regret of this staunch Cardinal rooster. As for the Redbirds, we shyly add that at least Musial is having a great year.

But as the saying goes. Old Cardinals fans never die-- they just commit Harry Caray!

Baker Proteges Seek To Improve Record

by Rick Ebbrecht

Coach Earl Baker looked for an improved football team before the opening game at Peru State.

The Bearcats could manage only a 2-7 record last year, but having lost only one key player, co-captain and all-conference guard Dick Clark, they will be striving to better the standard and improve their MIAA Conference standing. The squad will be built around a host of seasoned veterans including 23 lettermen supplemented by several transfer standouts.

Single Wing

Coach Baker's charges will run from a single-wing attack with a greater emphasis on passing this season. Defense, the key to good offense, has also played an important role in early season workouts.

Depth and speed will be a contributing asset to the Bearcat backfield as all posts are well-manned. Lettermen Earl Boyd and Tom Walton will share the signal calling chores. Freshman Paul Refsell is also slated to see some action as a varsity quarterback.

The halfback slot will be filled from Joe Bell, a three-year monogram winner, Bernie Ricono and Larry Mace. Ricono, a shifty speedster from Arizona State, is figured strongly in Coach Baker's plans.

Three area sophomores are battling for the wingback position. Doug Price, Maryville; Dick Snyder, Fairfax; and Gary Foland, Cameron, have all lettered for the Bearcats as freshman.

Don Daniels is top bidder for the fullback duties. Gary Taylor and Joe Heater, a Missouri University transfer, are also seeking duty at the workhorse position.

The line will be huge in size and experienced in action. The forward wall is brightest at the end and tackle slots. The transfer of Roger Voss, 6-8, 240 pounds, and Larry Richardson, 6-6, 205 pounds, should add the pass catching size necessary. Voss came from Colorado Uni-
